

Chambers of the Year: KCH Garden Square

Award sponsored by

KCH Garden Square, which is the largest chambers in the East Midlands, specialises in civil, criminal, family, public access and mediation.

KCH is committed to developing its chambers at both its East Midlands locations, in New Walk, Leicester; and Nottingham, and continues to provide quality advice and legal representation across an increasing range of areas.

Its barristers provide legal services for the general public, solicitors and organisations. Members of the civil team also practice in property, personal injury and employment law.

A KCH spokesman said: "We aim to provide an excellent, quality service that you can trust and depend upon."

"In continuing to provide this high standard we regularly assess and review our cases, services for the best possible service for you or your client."

"Whether you're an individual, solicitor or company our focus is always on you."

"Our barristers and clerks are very knowledgeable in their areas of law and we pride ourselves on understanding your needs and delivering the desired results, whilst being approachable and in contact throughout the process."

Head of chambers, Mark Van Der Zwart, received the award on behalf of KCH Garden Square.

He said: "Thank you to all our staff and clerks in particular."

"I would also like to accept this award on behalf of Stephen Lowe, who died a year ago, and who was head of chambers when KCH merged with Garden Square and he would have been enormously proud of the recognition."

"We contend that for a nation to try to tax itself into prosperity is like a man standing in a bucket and trying to lift himself up by the handle"

by Winston Churchill
